

Henderson and Jim Brittenfeld; squaws, Linda Meglin and Phyllis Bucha; cowgirls, Sharon Throop, Margie Meglin, Sue Carrothers, Maureen Bereskin, and Lois Duckworth.

Following the judging a "splash party" was held at the North Torrance Fire Department, but even this failed to dampen the spirits of the lively westerners and tribesmen.

Cowboys, Indians, And Hoboes Camp At McMaster Park

Hoboes set up camp, and cowboys battled Indians at McMaster park last week while participating in Hobo Day on Wednesday, and Cowboy Day on Friday.

Talent Show Winners Told

At the recent talent show held at Torrance Park under the auspices of the Torrance Recreation department, first place was awarded to singer Sharon Clark. According to recreation department sources, she will also try out for a talent group that will tour all the parks during the summer.

Second place winner was Pete Moore, who performed various acrobatic feats.

Third place was taken by the only contestant in costume, Kathryn Colish, who wore a Hawaiian costume and performed island dances.

Other talented entries included singerhs Delpha Elliott and Ronnie Balma; impersonator Janice Fredrickson, and baton twirler Judy Fredrickson. Department officials were highly pleased at the large turnout and the excellent audience participation. The program was under the supervision of Tony Gallo and Lou Bereskin.

Young Bakers Receive Honors For Top Cakes

Sixty-eight hungry mouths were filled with cake at Crenshaw playground recently. A cake-baking contest was held, with the honors going to three young girls for their skill in the kitchen.

The winner for the best decorated cake was Winifred Baskovich. The largest cake was baked by Linda Gerloff. Susan Smith was the baker of the smallest and most colorful cake.

All three winners went home very proud of their blue ribbons. The usual complaint was heard from the boys, "Not enough cake."

Ben Cluff Dairy To Sponsor Day At Scott Park

"Ben Cluff Day" will be observed around August 10 at Scott Park, when the local dairyman sponsors a day of games, prizes, and unlimited amounts of chocolate milk, all of which will be donated by the Ben Cluff Dairy, 22010 South Avalon, Wilmington. Children of all ages are invited to participate, says Dorothy Kemper, director at the playground, who is in charge of the program of the day.
